What is Title IX?
Title IX is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education. UT policy prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation. Sex discrimination includes:

Why Report?
- An incident has negatively affected your academics or employment.
- You have concerns about your safety or the safety of the community.
- You need assistance and support, but you do not want to name the Respondent.
- You want a No Contact Directive to be put in place between you and the Respondent.
- You would like to see the University take action and investigate the behavior of the Respondent.

How Can We Help?
Complainants guide what actions are taken to best suit their needs. Support services are always available with or without an investigation.

Stop behavior from continuing or escalating
Provide support and resources
Investigate and pursue disciplinary sanctions

Sexual Harassment
Sexual Assault
Sexual Misconduct
Interpersonal Violence
Stalking
Pregnancy, Nursing & Parenting

Other Campus Resources

Counseling & Mental Health Center 512-471-3515: Confidential individual & group counseling for students.
Student Emergency Services: 512-471-5017: Outreach, advocacy, intervention, support and referrals for students and their families in difficult situations.
Behavior Concerns Advice Line: 512-232-5050: 24/7 hotline to get support and advice if you have concerns about an individual or their behavior.
Interpersonal Violence Peer Support: 512-471-6147 – Expertly trained students who provide private, peer-based support for students impacted by interpersonal violence.
Advocates: 512-232-2860/512-232-6953 – Professional staff who provide support for students who have been impacted by interpersonal violence by exploring resources, reporting options, and accommodations.
Employee Assistance Program: 512-471-3366: Confidential counseling, crisis intervention, and referrals for employees.